

Special Rapporteur on the situation of human rights in the Islamic Republic of Iran
A/HRC/28/70 para 98

Full recommendation:

He also encourages the Government to consider committing to a voluntary midterm review that may contribute to its ability to advance the pledges that it may undertake at the outcome of its second UPR in March 2015.

Assessment

The government of Iran submitted a mid-term report for the Universal Periodic Review for the period between 2015 and 2016.¹ A mid-term report is a voluntary effort undertaken by countries as a good practice and is conducted between two main UPR reviews.

Recommendation Status:

This recommendation has been IMPLEMENTED.
