

Special Rapporteur on the situation of human rights in the Islamic Republic of Iran
A/HRC/43/61 para 70(h)

Full recommendation:

The Special Rapporteur recommends that the Government, the judiciary and the parliament, as appropriate: Pass the parliamentary bill introduced in September 2019 aimed at ending the recording and broadcasting of confessions on State-funded media prior to trial and ensure punishments for those involved in recording and broadcasting such confessions;

Assessment

As of February 2021, the bill introduced in September 2019 and aimed at ending the recording and broadcasting of confessions on State-funded media prior to trial has not been passed.

Recommendation Status:

This recommendation has NOT been implemented.